

The CONTENTS.

Amerciament , what,	Page 19
Contenement , what,	ibid. and 20
Haberjects , what,	ibid.
The several Significations of the Word Liberties ,	28
That all Monopolies are against Magna Charta , and why,	ibid.
That the King cannot banish any Man out of the Realm without his Consent,	29
The Signification of the Word Peers ,	ibid. and 30
That no Man may be imprison'd without due Process of Law; and the necessary Circumstances required in all legal Commitments,	30
The three Qualities of Justice ,	31
That the Judges are not to obey any Command from the King against Law, tho' sent them under the Great or Privy Seal; much less when signify'd to them by any Message, &c.	ibid.
Protections , when unlawful,	32
That the Law is called Right , and why,	ibid. and 33
Of the County-Court , its Institution and Jurisdiction,	36
Of the View of Frank-Pledge ,	36, 37
Of Lands given in Mortmain ,	37, 38
Of the Tenure called Escuage ,	39
Charta de Foresta , and the Comment upon it,	39 to 57
The grievous Oppression of the People, by the making of Forests,	39, 40
The	The