

The CONTENTS.

The Offences made Treason since the 1st of Queen Mary,	Page 88, 89
Of Trials for Treason,	89 to 93
The Statute of 2 Ed. 3. cap. 2. and Comment upon it,	93 to 101
What Things the King may pardon, in what manner, and what he cannot pardon, &c.	94, &c.
Of Appeals,	101 to 114
The Form of an Appeal of Murder,	103
The Proceedings in Case of Appeals of Mur- der,	105, &c.
A Discourse of Parliaments, touching the Antiquity, Use, and Power of them, and the Qualifications of such Gentlemen as are fit to be chosen the Peoples Representa- tives,	114 to 213
Of the Name and Antiquity of Parliaments,	114, &c.
The Derivation and Signification of the Word Parliament,	114, 115
City, what, and in what it differs from a Borough,	115, 116
Of the three Estates in Parliament, and whe- ther the Bishops are one of them,	116 to 121
That the Empire of Germany, the Kingdoms of Spain, France, &c. are likewise divided into three Estates,	118
Of the Power of Parliaments, and that the Parliament has Right to order the Succes- sion to the Crown; and that he who de- nies it forfeits all his Goods and Chattels,	120 to 124
The particular Business of Parliaments, &c.	122, &c.
Of	