

The CONTENTS.

treating the Voters by any other Person	Page 175, 176
Stat. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 7. Of False and Double Return of Members to serve in Parliament,	176
Of the Election of Members for the Cinque- Ports ,	177, 178
Of the Privilege of the Members,	178
Of the Continuance of Parliaments,	179
The Petition of Right , granted by Charles I. and that King's Assent thereunto; left out in the printed Statute-Book,	180, to 185
A short but impartial History of the Diffe- rences between that King and the Long Parliament, concerning the Prerogative of the King, the Liberties of the Subject, and the Rise of the Civil Wars,	185 to 213
The Habeas Corpus Act , Anno 31 Car. 2. cap. 2. and Comment upon it,	213 to 229
Part of the Stat. 22 & 23 Car. 2. cap. 20. for the Benefit of Prisoners for Debt , 229 to 233
Stat. 17 Car. 1. cap. 10. For Regulating of the Privy Council , and for taking away the Court of Star-Chamber , with a Comment upon it,	233 to 243
The Clause in the Act of 31 Car. 2. cap. 1. that no Man shall be compelled to quarter Soldiers,	243
A Discourse of Juries ,	244 to 273
Of the Advantage Englishmen enjoy by this Trial by Juries above any other Nation under Heaven,	244 to 248
What	