

C H A P. III.

AND we will that the same Charters shall be sent under our Seal to the Cathedral Churches throughout our Realm, there to remain, and shall be read before the People two times by the Year.

C H A P. IV.

AND that all Archbishops and Bishops shall pronounce the Sentence of Excommunication against all those that by Word or Deed, or Counsel, do contrary to the aforesaid Charters, or that in any Point break or undo them; and that the said Curses be twice a Year denounced and published by the Prelates aforesaid; and if the same Prelates or any of them be remiss in the Denunciation of the said Sentences, the Archbishops of Canterbury and York for the time being shall compel and distrain them to the Execution of their Duties in Form aforesaid.

C H A P. V.

AND forsomuch as divers People of our Realm are in fear that the Aids and Taxes which they have given us before time towards our Wars, and other Busineses, of their own Grant or Good-will, however they were made, might turn to Bondage to them and their Heirs, because they might be at another time found in the Rolls, and likewise for the Prices taken throughout the Realm by our Ministers; We have granted for Us and our Heirs, that we shall not draw no such Aids, Tasks nor
