

1. To be imprisoned during the Pleasure of the House.

2. To be fined a thousand Pounds.

3. To make his Submission at the Bar in this House, and in the House of Commons, at the Bar there, in verbis conceptis, a set Form of words framed by a Committee of this House.

4. To be suspended from his Ministerial Function three Years, and in the mean time a sufficient Preaching-man to be provided out of the Profits of his Living, and this to be left to be performed by the Ecclesiastical Court.

5. To be disabled for ever hereafter from Preaching at Court.

6. To be for ever disabled of having any Ecclesiastical Dignity in the Church of England.

7. To be incapable of any Secular Office or Preferment.

8. That his Books are worthy to burned, and his Majesty to be moved, that it may be so in London, and both the Universities.

And accordingly he made his Submission at the Bar of both Houses on his Knees, on the 23d of June following, with these outward Expressions of Sorrow, as follow,

I do here, in all Sorrow of Heart, and true Repentance, acknowledge those many Errors and Indiscretions which I have committed in Preaching and Publishing the two Sermons of mine, which I called Religion and Allegiance, and my great Fault in falling upon this Theme again, and handling the same rashly, scandalously and unadvisedly, in my own Parish-Church in St. Giles's in the Fields, the fourth of May last past. I humbly acknowledge these three Sermons to have been full of dangerous Passages and Inferences, and scandalous Aspersions in most part of them. And I do
