

berties of the Subjects, contrary to the Law of the Land, and the Rights and Privileges of the Subject, by which great and manifold Mischiefs and Inconveniences have arisen and happened, and much Incertainty, by means of such Proceedings, hath been conceived, concerning Mens Rights and Estates; for settling whereof, and preventing the like in time to come,

3. Be it ordained and enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That the said Court, commonly called the Star-Chamber, and all Jurisdiction, Power and Authority, belonging unto, or exercised in the same Court, or by any the Judges, Officers or Ministers thereof, be from the first day of August, in the Year of our Lord God, one thousand six hundred forty and one, clearly and absolutely dissolved, taken away and determined. (2.) And that from the said first day of August, neither the Lord Chancellor, or Keeper of the Great Seal of England, the Lord Treasurer of England, the Keeper of the King's Privy Seal, or President of the Council, nor any Bishop, Temporal Lord, Privy Counsellor, or Judge, or Justice whatsoever, shall have any Power or Authority to hear, examine or determine any matter or thing whatsoever in the said Court, commonly called the Star-Chamber, or to make pronounce, or deliver, any Judgment, Sentence, Order or Decree; or to do any Judicial or Ministerial Act in the said Court. (3.) And that all and every Act and Acts of Parliament, and all and every Article, Clause and Sentence in them, and every of them, by which any Jurisdiction, Power or Authority is given, limited or appointed, unto the said Court, commonly called the Star-Chamber, or unto all, or any the Judges, Officers or Ministers thereof, or for any Proceedings to be had or made in the said Court, or for any matter or thing to be drawn into question, examined or determined there, shall for so much as concerneth the said Court of Star-Chamber, and the Power and Authority thereby given
