

C O N T E N T S.

Section	Page
V. Various Forms of Polytheism, Allegory, Hero-Worship	436
VI. Origin of Theism from Polytheism	440
VII. Confirmation of this Doctrine	445
VIII. Flux and Reflux of Polytheism and Theism	447
IX. Comparison of these Religions with regard to Persecution and Toleration	449
X. With regard to Courage or Abasement	453
XI. With regard to Reason or Absurdity	455
XII. With regard to Doubt or Conviction	458
XIII. Impious Conceptions of the divine Nature in most popular Religions of both Kinds	471
XIV. Bad Influence of most popular Religions on Morality	477
XV. General Corollary from the Whole	482

ESSAYS