

AFTER LUNCHEON

Page 9

the wharves. It was ce there we saw our
". After waiting an hour to Lake Erie, was very warm. We had two outside staterooms, the three men in one, and the three women in the other.

It was an awfully cute one. We went on deck
and sat around

Octorara

in stamer chairs ~~on~~ writing and talking.
The meals are awfully good and we think we have the nicest waiter on the ship. Most agreeable. I'd like to sleep in berths all the time they are so comfortable. At 10 o'clock at night I wake up: we were coming into Cleveland, Ohio! I had an upper berth and could see out through the porthole, ~~at~~ the lights and the dock.

Page 10

July, wed. 6th

Had breakfast and then got out at Detroit, ^{Mich.} at 8.00. The boys taking a sight seeing bus to Belle Isle Park and the rest of us ~~to~~ going to shop and see what we could of Detroit from street-cars and fifth ave. buses.

The boys told us afterwards that there was a man on the bus pointing out the objects of ^{interest} ~~attention~~ and that he would say, "This gentlemen is the great Municipiple High School of Detroit."

till they almost split laughing.
We rode around a little and bought a dress and two waists and on the way back stopped

