Instructions for Sr Arthure Chichester Knight Baron of Belfast, and Deputie of our Realme of Ireland

Whereas as y^e are now upon y^e returne backe againe into o^r Kingdom of Ireland, to continue y^e place in y^e Government of y^e said. As y^e have hitherto discharged y^e trust reposed in y^e, wth all due care, and integrity, to o^r service, satisfaction, and contentment: Yet now have I thought it expedient, for y^e better direction, and assistance in the future, and for the better manifestation of o^r will, and pleasure, in some points touching y^e said Government, to add thereto Articles following, as Instructions for y^e to proceede, in such manner as may best stand wth y^e advancement of o^r service, and y^e publicke peace, and quiet of y^e said Realme.

Firste therefore wth due gravity let y^e knowe: That y^e differences of Parliament beinge nowe heard, and adjudged by y^e, y^e beinge nowe wth us obsequious to troubles most chief of y^e present tyme is the course of reformation to
