

Dunboines Grandgild of the age of 13 years. the Lo: Cahyes Nephew, who is Comptroler his Brother Thomas Butler; and the Lo: Power of the age of 15 years has sent over letters into England to be disposed of as shall meet. And that likewise the Lo: of Brimingshams Grandgild of the age of 14 years has brought up at the free School in Dublin.

x 75 And forasmuch as some persons it to be taken out of the Citties, and Corporate Towns within that Kingdom of Ireland, if either they shall refuse obstinate refusante, (though otherwise fit persons) to be their Mayors or other officers: In which case they refusing to take the oath of Supremacy, are disabled ipso facto to hold their said offices by the Statute of 2^d Eliz: enacted in that Kingdom, or in default of sufficient persons to supply the said places of Governor. Shall make choice of persons either unfit for their degree, or absence, or otherwise contemptible persons to be their Mayors or other officers Officers, in the said Citties, and Towns: And where it expedient, and do hereby require you to take order, that if such refusant persons, being refused, shall stand disabled, and deposed for refusing the said oath: And that now either be elected in their Towns, within the time limited, for a new election by their several Governors, so as you do followe a preambles of the said officers that you be forthwith a seizure made of the Liberties