facias, or Inquisition, as by the advice of the Council your y^e shall think meete x 16 And wee doe further require y^e. That if to avoid said parson, they shall make use of obstinate versauite, perfit, or contemptible persons, contrarie to the intent of their Chartres, whereby they are required to choose your right Magistrates de milionibus, et discretionibus viris of their Corporation That say, as are authorized by their Chartres, to elect your right officers, be censured for their Contempt, either at the Council Table, or in the Castle Chamber your x 17 Our further pleasure is, touching the execution of the Statute 2 Eliz. against versauite in generall. That all versauite, growe out that Kingdome, bee proceeded against for the penalties thereunto for their wilfull defaults to come to your Warrist Georges every Monday, and Tuly day, according to the Statute 18 And whereas there are two Courses of proceeding prescribed by the said Statute: The one by way of Indictment, The other by way of Ecclesiastical Censure: Wee are of opinion, that both waies be posed: But that the proceeding by way of Excommunication bee more sparingly used, and only against the most obstinate sort of people, or such as by reason of their default, or qualities shall not stand for the penalties of non payment for some time
