[Nov. 14-58]

The preceding string of advertisements I cut from one of the "Sunday" newspapers. Some years ago, the janitor of the Museum, in Ninth street, Mr. Mc. Guigan, informed me that more than four hundred such entertainments were given there in the course of one year. I have reason to believe the number has very much increased.

The general character of the persons attending the "Balls and parties" it is well known are—the men—fair men—apprintice—boys—news-boys—gamblers, fancy men &c.
—that of the women, fantasy girls—milliners—shop-girls &c., and I regret to say almost all American born.—The inevitable result of such materials so mingling, may readily be anticipated.

The dandy Man-
ket street—cuprum tee boys and dry goods store clerks—are the efficient beans, and gallants of the girls on the above occasions—
