LEWIS LADOMUS,
Jewelry, Silversmith and Silver Ware,
WHOLESALE & RETAIL,
No. 103 Chestnut St., east wing of Franklin House.
 I have just received a splendid and large assortment of Gold and Silver Lever, Lining and Plain WATCHES, consisting in part of the following celebrated Makers: Cooper, Dwyer, Taylor, Bessey, Robinson, and Tobin, Johnson, Roswell, Cooper, Dwyer, Taylor, Bessey, Robinson, and Adams, London.
 The above named Manufacturers are, without a doubt, the best Manufacturers in the world. Although I confine myself to no particular make or name, but select most carefully all Watches I sell—(well knowing that the most celebrated manufacturers occasionally make an imperfect Time-piece), having devoted a number of years to the Watch making business, I am positive that I can suit any person or persons wanting a good and perfect WATCH, and would invite all to call. Every Watch is thoroughly examined, repaired and regulated before it can be sold to a customer—therefore they may rely on their Watches keeping accurate time. I also have on hand a large assortment of full-jewelled Gold Levers, 18 karat Gold Cases, which I can sell for the low price of $35, and warranted to keep first-rate time. I can send a Watch or Watches to any part of the United States, West Indies, or any other part of the World, by Mail, with perfect safety; or anything in my line. GOLD PENS from $1 upwards, and sent by mail to any part of the country. Also on hand—a splendid rich and new assortment of JEWELRY, GOLD CHAINS, &c. &c.
 Silver Spoons, Forks; Pie, Cake, Fish, Cream, Crumb & Fruit Knives, in great variety. Also on hand a large assortment of Plated Castors, Cake Baskets, Spoons, Forks, &c., which look almost equal to Silver. Particular attention paid to Repairing Watches or Jewelry. California Gold bought for cash, as also old Silver.
 Please call and examine for yourself, or send your orders, accompanied with the cash, and they will be promptly attended to.

 This the Pioneer Line, has four independent wires, running through New York to Washington; large sums have been recently expended to perfect the work, and a thorough repair of the entire line is now being made; an additional wire from New York to Philadelphia has just been erected, which affords the control of the instruments in each of the two great Commercial Emporiums of the country. The business has been systematized both as regards dispatch and delivery of messages, in a way to render facilities, security and accommodation to the public unequalled by any Telegraph line in this or any other country.
SUNDAY HOURS. To afford facilities to travellers and others in cases of accident, sickness, sudden death, or other emergencies, to give early notice to distant friends, all the offices of this line are kept open on Sundays from 9 to 10 A. M., from 1 to 2, and 6 to 8 o'clock P. M.
