

The second subseries holds fragments that were cut from orders, correspondence, and other official military documents, and were formerly mounted in an album of Civil War ephemera (which was disbound prior to 2005). They are housed alphabetically by signer in five folders; surnames appear in the box and folder list following. Many of the fragments were annotated on their verso in red ink with the officer's name and rank.