

Eight, from the First of the Month called October, to the First of the Month called March; and from the Hours of Seven until Nine, from the First of the Month called March, to the First of the Month called October: At which Hours (and no Time else) he shall be obliged to let out and receive Books agreeable to the under-written Directions, viz.

II. He shall let to any Person, not a Member, any of the Books of the Library (that are not applied for by any Member) upon his giving his Note, payable to the Clerk, with a Penalty of double the Value of the Book, or Set of Books (if more than one Volume) to return the Book or Books undefaced, if in Folio or Quarto in Six Weeks, with Eight Pence per Week for each Book; if in Octavo, in four Weeks, with Six Pence per Week for each Book; and if in Duodecimo, in Three Weeks, with Four Pence per Week for each Book, as Hire.

III. He is directed not to renew a Note for any Person not a Member, after any Member hath applied for the same Book.

IV. He shall lend any Member one Volume of the Books at a Time for the Times above-mentioned.

V. He shall let any Member have more than one Volume at a Time, provided the Volumes are so connected together as to be otherwise unserviceable.

VI.

Privilege allowed to Persons not Members.

Ditto to Members.

