

VI. He shall take Notes for all Books let out to Members, of double the Value of said Book or Books (payable, if forfeited, to the Clerk) to return the said Book or Books undamaged in the Times before mentioned. And if any Member shall borrow a Book or Books, and not return them at their proper Times, the Clerk is required to take of him Four Pence per Week for each Volume he shall keep beyond its Time.

VII. He is directed not to renew a Note for any Member (nor no other Person) after a Member hath applied for the same Book.

VIII. He is directed to let any Member of this Library have free Recourse to the Library Room, and to the Books and Effects of the Company, by delivering him the Key or Keys, at any seasonable Time when demanded, every such Member taking Care to send the Clerk the Key again in a proper Time.

And the Directors do agree for themselves, that they will meet at the Library-Room at the Hours above-mentioned, on the second Second-day in every Month; then and there to receive Applications for new Members, and Admitting them, and to consult the Good of the Company, at which Times and Place the Clerk is required to attend.

Monthly Meeting! when held