

lifetime, of my share of my brother, William Rush's estate, in case I should not have done so in my lifetime, I give and devise the whole thereof to my niece, Mrs. Georgiana Clark, daughter of my sister, Mrs. Emily Cuthbert, her heirs, executors, and administrators, as a remuneration for her mother's share of my mother's estate, of which she was thoughtlessly and ungenerously deprived.

Twenty-second. I will and direct that all legacy or collateral inheritance taxes chargeable upon the bequests, legacies, and annuities given or bequeathed by my last will and testament or by any codicil thereto, shall be paid from and out of my residuary estate, and that all the annuities therein and thereby given shall commence from the day of my death. I also will and direct that all the annuities which I have given, or may hereafter give to any married lady, shall be for their sole and separate use, freed from all debts, obligations, or control of their respective husbands; and that all the annuities which I have given to any female, married or single, or which I may hereafter give them, shall be payable to them personally, or to their own order or receipt, signed and dated not more than three months before the same falls or becomes due, and shall not be subject to any anticipation, lien, or incumbrance, nor to any transfer or assignment by their own act, or by the act or operation of law, or otherwise. And in case any of the said female annuitants shall attempt to alien, anticipate, encumber, or assign her annuity, or cause, or permit, or suffer, or
