

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 16th day of May, An. Dom. eighteen hundred and sixty-six (1866).

(Signed) JAMES RUSH. [SEAL.]

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by Dr. JAMES RUSH above named, as and for a codicil to his last will and testament, in our presence, who, in his presence and in presence of each other, at his request, have affixed our names as witnesses thereto.

J. S. FARMER, May 16, 1866.

RICHARD S. HUNTER, May 16, 1866.

ADDITIONAL CODICIL.

Be it remembered, That I, JAMES RUSH, of the city of Philadelphia, M. D., do make this additional codicil to my last will and testament, dated the 26th day of February, A. D. (1860) eighteen hundred and sixty, in manner following—that is to say:—

First. I have given and devised the greater part of my estate to my executor for the purpose of erecting for the Library Company of Philadelphia a building not only large enough to contain their present books, but also their probable increase for many years to come. Now, as I do not desire that the Library Company shall have an income greater than is required to provide for the legitimate (not a competing) increase of the library and their current expenses (not to be so large as to invite
