

November 6th 1806

25

D^r C Wistar having lost one volume Octavo
N^o 1063 entitled Forsters Catalogue (old) Resolved That he either supply a new volume or pay the sum of one dollar.

August 25th 1807

Paid $1.
vide Fine Book

Stephen Shewell having damaged the 15th Volumes of the Ladies Museum Duo: N^o 386. Resolved That he pay the sum of one Dollar

January 24th 1807

Paid $1.—

December 4th 1800

Clement Humphreys having damaged the first volume of Popular Tales by M. Edgeworth duodecimo (N^o 1435) London edition. Resolved That he replace it by a new volume or pay one dollar

Replaced

John Claxton having lost a volume of Procas heroic conduct of women Duodecimo N^o 1418 Resolved that he either replace it by a new Lon: don edition, or by an american edition and in the latter case pay also one dollar or else pay two dollars

Dec: 6 1800

Furnished an American edition

Paid $1.—

March 5th 1807

Richard Rush son of D^r B. Rush having lost the first volume of Johnsons Debates in 2 vols octavo, as good as new Resolved that he replace the volume lost by one of equal value; or furnish a new set equal in all respects. In taking the odd volume in this case; or pay the sum of four dollars for the lost volume

Found and Returned

