

August 4.th 1825

Dacre on the use of Salt as a manure 8<sup>vo</sup> London 1825 - presented by Dr. Parke, injured and defaced accidentally while in possession of Edmund Green. - It is decreed that the Company retain the book, and that Mr Green pay $2.50 for the damage done thereto -

paid $2.50

Clement C. Biddle lost a duodecimo volume No 2472 containing 1st The life of the Abbe Edgeworth Lond 1815. 2<sup>o</sup> An essay on the arts of Greece cost. 16/s sterling - C. C. Biddle to replace the Book or pay Six dollars

Paid $6.

Lloyds translation of Alfieris Tragedies duodecimo No 2407 the second volume while in the possession of Charles W. Hare Esq. - by an accident injured several of the last pages being torn & defaced Resolved that he replace the volume defaced with one of the same edition; or pay two dollars for the damage done & leave the defaced volume -

William Chancellor lost "Focuis Pocus; or the whole art of legerdemain Duo: No 841 Dublin 1765 Resolved that William Chancellor pay two dollars for the lost book

paid $2