

Philadelphia May 6th 1793

The Subscribers Members of the Library Company of Philadelphia, believing that the Interests of the Company would be greatly promoted by increasing the purchase Money, and the Annual payments of those Persons only, who may hereafter buy Shares, Request of the Directors to call a general Meeting of the Members To consider the propriety of raising the price of a new share To fifteen pounds & the Annual payment thereon to fifteen Shilling, & to adopt any other similar Alteration which the Members When met may Approve
