

necessary for the purposes aforesaid, without any obligation on the purchaser or purchasers to see to or be responsible for the application of the purchase money or other consideration, or for the propriety of the exercise of this power.

And I further will, devise, and direct that all investments if any should be made by my executor, and all those which may at any time hereafter be made by the said Library Company from the principal or income of my said estate shall be in ground rents or other real estate in the State of Pennsylvania, or in bonds and mortgages upon property within the said State, or in loans of the said State, or of the United States; and lastly, I hereby appoint my brother-in-law, Henry J. Williams, of the city of Philadelphia, executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of February, A.D. eighteen hundred and sixty, 1860.
