FIRST CODICIL.

Be it remembered, That I, JAMES RUSH, of the City of Philadelphia, M. D., do make this codicil to my last will and testament, dated the twenty-sixth day of February, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty (1860), in manner following—that is to say:—

Whereas, By my said last will and testament I have provided that the bequests and devises to the Library Company of Philadelphia are to be held under the conditions and restrictions therein contained, and any others which I might thereafter impose; now, therefore, in accordance with, and in execution of that provision, I add and impose the following conditions, restrictions, and directions:—
