

Twenty-eighth. I desire my executor to be allowed a commission of three per cent. upon the administration of my estate ; and, in the case of the death of my brother-in-law, HENRY J. WILLIAMS, whom I have named as my executor in my last will, either before or after me, I nominate and appoint Colonel Alexander Biddle and Thomas Craven to be my executors in his room. They are not, however, to assume the executorship, or be qualified therefor, until after his death, resignation, or refusal to act.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this sixteenth day of May, An. Dom. eighteen hundred and sixty-six (1866).

(Signed), JAMES RUSH [SEAL.]

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by Dr. JAMES RUSH above named, as and for a codicil to his last will and testament, in our presence, who, in his presence and in presence of each other, at his request, have affixed our names as witnesses thereto.

J. S. FARMER, May 16, 1866.

RICHARD S. HUNTER, May 16, 1866.

ADDITIONAL CODICIL.

Be it remembered That I, JAMES RUSH, of the City of Philadelphia, M. D., do make this additional codicil to my last will and testament, dated the twenty-sixth day of February, A. D. (1860) eighteen hundred and sixty, in manner following—that is to say :—

First. I have given and devised the greater part of my estate to my executor for the purpose of erecting for the Library Company of Philadelphia a building not only large
