

mental capacity may have been. To avoid the possibility of such a result, I must let it stand as it is, and add other provisions as they may occur to me.

Twenty-seventh. If any annuitant in any codicil to my last will named, whose residence is in the United States of America, shall leave this country after my death to remain either temporarily or permanently abroad, I will and direct that their respective annuities shall be suspended until their return; and the several half yearly payments becoming due during their absence shall fall into and become part of my residuary estate.

Twenty-eighth. I desire my executor to be allowed a commission of three per cent. upon the administration of my estate; and, in the case of the death of my brother-in-law, HENRY J. WILLIAMS, whom I have named as my executor in my last will, either before or after me, I nominate and appoint Colonel Alexander Biddle and Thomas Craven to be my executors in his room. They are not, however to assume the executorship, or be qualified therefor, until after his death, resignation, or refusal to act.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 16th day of May, An. Dom. eighteen hundred and sixty-six (1866).

(Signed) JAMES RUSH. [SEAL.]

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by Dr. JAMES RUSH above named, as and for a codicil to his last will
