

~~New Share to Helen P. Bacon~~ not paid 38.

The Treasurer reports that the number of new shares issued during the Year 1866 was 34, a larger number than ever added before in one year, except on three occasions, viz: in 1769 when 276 members of the Union Library were admitted: in 1789 to 1792 when 274 new shares were sold to defray the expense of the present Building; and in 1840 when 62 members of the Library of Foreign Literature were admitted.

The present number of Shares is 954, the number in 1855 having been 867.
