

When against what the Company Oct 3 1869

Judge Sherman in the case N. E. Phillips vs. West Messrs. Lillman & Hutchinson appointed by the court was to ascertain & report whether or no pretended they what that they were a partner of Messrs. Lillman & Hutchinson and that in a partnership with a person named Messrs. Lillman & Hutchinson

The minutes of the last meeting are read by the Secretary & approved The report of the Committee of Messrs.
& directed appointment at the last meeting was that read by their chairman Mr. Stebbins

The Chairman & members of the Committee read a minute's report signed by himself also
The first motion of the Committee is that it be agreed that the whole question be left to the members and that discussion

The Minutes in support of the Report The Phillips - about the propriety of settling the question of the propriety of settling the first motion by making the second motion a proviso to the first

