

Librarian's Report Oct 2^d 1879

Lawrence Coxe, our second Assistant, has left the service of the Library. I respectfully request permission to take another young man on trial, Edward Parker at $3. - a week.

I suggest that the time has nearly come to appoint a Janitor for the Locust St Building.

After transferring the books described in the Janitor Catalogue to the Ridway Branch, there is still shelf room for 13,000 vols. I recommend that the greater part of the theological books now in Fifth St be removed to Broad Christian

The number of visitors at the Ridway Branch during September was 1254
