Mr John A. McAllister has presented to the Ridgway Library without condition, about fifty maps and charts, 45 vols of newspapers and periodicals, and about 30 vols of miscellaneous books, being in part the same as those he offered in exchange for two of our duplicates. The volumes of hymns and prayer-books are not included.

The Boston Public Library & the Library of Harvard College, in issuing their occasional Bulletins of new books, are accustomed to add complete Lists of books on special subjects, which are highly valued by students and bibliographers.
An opportunity is now offered for this Library to imitate their example. Mr. Wildetum has prepared a list of all known works relating to Malacopteria from the beginning to 1776, and he will cheerfully furnish it to us for publication in our July Bulletins, if the Committee approve. The expense would be
