The Janitor was not satisfied with the coal furnished him during the early part of the season for the Library furnaces, and when it was exhausted I allowed him to get a few tons to suit himself. He got them from Adams & Storrie and is entirely satisfied. They offer to supply the Library for next winter at $6.25 per ton.

Backer who are now at work on the platform. This work is already paid for.

The Janitor reports the tin roof in perfect order, and I have paid the contractor $25 - as account as agreed. Some water, however, in heavy storms, soaks through the joints of the cornice, at the corner of the
