Report to Executive Committee

The Janitor, John Smith, has given notice that he will give up his situation as soon as we can provide a substitute.

Morton Shaw - assistant at the desk - has left the service of the Library, and I have transferred Paul Garber from the Ridgway Branch in his place, until the Committee take action on the matter. This leaves a vacancy at the Ridgway Branch, which I have supplied - for the emergency only - by taking on the Janitor's son.

Joseph Collins, the youngest assistant at the Locust St. Library has given
