

April 3rd 1879

The Finance Committee herewith the Report of the Treasurer showing the balance in hand.

In view of the approach of the close of the first year in which the Board has administered the trust under the will of Dr. Rock, the Committee has naturally been led to an examination of the general subject of income and expenditure of the three different departments into which the library is divided. The receipts of the library during the year for the Year (Dec^r & estimated) are, say, $10,600 of the Logansian 2,500 of the Ridgway Branch, estimated but income for coming year, 12,000

Total $25,100

This being, perhaps, or reduced about $1000 by the Antislavery Fund Legation
