

New York June 2^d 1879

Henry Wharton Esq
Philadelphia.

Dear Sir,

Referring to the conversacion which I had the pleasure of having with you a few days ago, I beg to say that I shall be very glad to act as the Agent of the Philadelphia Library Co. for foreign books.

I beg to propose as a satisfactory arrangement, the same, that has been in force with the Public Library in Boston, viz: to receive a certain amount of books, according to the Instructions given, as soon as published, once or twice every month, and
