

FOREIGN BOOKS

imported to order free of duty.

The undersigned Importers of Foreign Books beg to announce that they are prepared—until further notice—to execute orders for the importation of Books and Periodicals for Universities, Colleges, Public Libraries, Incorporated Literary Institutions

FREE OF DUTY,

at the following rates, viz:

	from Germany , ₤ 1 Thaler (3 Marks)	from England , ₤ 1 Shilling Sterl.	from France , ₤ 1 Franc
New Books	77 Cents Gold,	27 Cents Gold,	25 Cents Gold.
Second-hand Books .89	“	29 “	28 “
Periodicals84	“	29 “	30 “

These very low rates, in addition to the facilities which we enjoy through our Extended European connections of many years' standing, secure to our patrons advantages which are unequaled in every respect.

We take pleasure at the same time in calling particular attention to the

EXTENSIVE AND CAREFULLY SELECTED

Stock of German and French Publications, which we, respectively, keep on hand, and are incessantly enlarging by the addition of new books as soon as issued.

Either of us will be pleased to entertain proposals in regard to the sending of new publications for inspection.

F. W. Christern, 77 University Place,

L. W. Schmidt, 24 Barclay Street,

E. Steiger, 22 & 24 Frankfort Street,

B. Westermann & Co., 524 Broadway.

NEW YORK, June, 1874.