

in sending you a list of late publications, which may be of interest to you. The prices are given for copies in paper cover, and I shall be glad to furnish you these books at the library price, and to replace them free of duties for my stock. - It is very likely that several of the books are already in your possession, if you have lately received an invoice. -

In the German list I have given a few names of authors, who belong at present to the most popular. If you will mention the titles of the books which are already in the library, it will be easy to complete the sets, if it should
