

Sallie Sanders Venning Diary Transcription

Year: 1891

Year	Month	Day	Day of Week	Weather	Text
1891	May	4	Monday	[Nothing recorded]	Taught School for Ran. Went to Fair, tired out. Will Holden came home with me. A fine time. Retired 12.
1891	May	5	Tuesday	[Nothing recorded]	Last night of Fair. A fine time. Won the clock. Quite a crowd. Tired out. B. Baxter came home with me. Retired 1 A.M.
11	May	6	Wednesday	Cloudy	Taught school. Ran still sick. Snow in morning. Very cold. Retired 10 P.M. Very tired.
1891	May	7	Thursday	Fair	Taught school. Very cool. Millinery class Mrs. Ballard to see Ran. Retired early very tired.
1891	May	8	Friday	Cloudy	Children's Party. Taught School. Wrote a letter to Annie Bishop. Retired 2:30 A.M.
1891	May	9	Saturday	[Nothing recorded]	Busy all day. Very warm. Retired early.
1891	May	10	Sunday	Hot	Church morning and night—home rest of day. Tom here in afternoon. Retired 9:30 P.M.
1891	May	11	Monday	[Nothing recorded]	Dancing School May Party engaged to Fred Dutton. Did not have it. Still teaching. Retired 10 P.M.
1891	May	12	Tuesday	[Nothing recorded]	Still teaching. Ran getting on nicely. Retired early.
1891	May	13	Wednesday	Fair	Teaching still. Last dinner at Mrs. B. Received a letter from Lizzie Hunter. Retired early.
1891	May	14	Thursday	[Nothing recorded]	Mrs. B gone away. Eat dinner at school. A good number at school. Millinery class.
1891	May	15	Friday	Rain	One session at School. Very glad. Cleaned the parlor. Retired early.
1891	May	16	Saturday	[Nothing recorded]	Embroidery class. Came home sick. Retired 5:30 P.M.
1891	May	17	Sunday	[Nothing recorded]	Home all day, quite sick. "War of Roses." Retired 9:30 P.M.
1891	May	18	Monday	[Nothing recorded]	Meeting of the Fern Leaf Social at Capp's. Very good meeting. Retired 11 P.M.
1891	May	19	Tuesday	Fair	Still teaching school. Getting on nicely.
1891	May	20	Wednesday	[Nothing recorded]	Returned ticket money. Went to Mortimer's afterwards. Retired 10 P.M.
1891	May	21	Thursday	[Nothing recorded]	Must not miss millinery class to night. Very important. Retired 10 P.M.