

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO
Rev. M. P. Gaddis.

I LOVED
That Dear Old Flag
THE BEST.

SONG AND CHORUS.

Rev. M. P. Gaddis relates the following touching incident:—

“A young soldier, belonging to one of the Minnesota Regiments, was dying from wounds received in battle: he requested me to get him the pictures of his mother and sister from his knapsack. After kissing them tenderly, he raised his tear-dimmed eyes till they rested on a flag at the end of the hospital, when his eyes grew bright as he exclaimed, “Oh, Chaplain! I loved my dear old mother and sister, but I loved that dear old FLAG the best!”
