The sections of the Union, firm, loyal, ever true,
 United with the Border States, the rebel hordes pursue;
 With Maryland, of Southern clime—none dare her bright fame mar—
 Stand by our Flag, our own true Flag, with every Stripe and Star. CHORUS.

5.

Hurrah for brave McClellan, of bold Antietam fame,
 Victory crowned his battle Flag, a charm is in his name;
 And Hooker, Sigle, Kenly too, who each can show a scar,
 Pour out their blood this Flag to save, with every Stipe and Star. CHORUS.

6.

With Foote, Dupont and Rosecrans, true heroes of the West,
 And Halleck, Burnside, Butler too, whose valor all attest,
 And those who fought in Maryland, by old South Mountain side,
 Drove Lee and Jackson from our soil, across Potomac's tide. CHORUS.

7.

All honor to the men who fight; tears for the noble dead;
 Our country mourns her soldiers brave, whose blood for us was shed;
 And every patriot volunteer enlisted for the war,
 God bless them battling for our Flag, with every Stripe and Star. CHORUS.
