1st Verse. Nobly our flag flutters o'er us to day — Em-blem of peace, Pledge of Liber-tys' sway —
2nd " With it in beauty no flag can compare — All nations honor our banner so fair — ad lib.

Its foes shall tremble and shrink in dismay If e'er in-sulted it be!
If to in-sult it, a traitor should dare Crush'd to the earth lethim be!

Colla voce.

Rall? cres.
Our "stripes and stars" lov'd and honor'd by all Shall float forever where free-dom may call,
"Freedom and Progress," our watchword to day — When duty calls us, who dares dis-o- bey?
