

Mary pettini

DAISY DEANE.

SONG AND CHORUS.

Words and Music mostly by

LIEUT. T. F. WINTHROP, AND JAMES R. MURRAY,

19th Regiment,

14th Regiment,

Massachusetts Volunteers.

None knew thee but to love thee thou dear one of my heart,
Oh, thy memory is ever fresh and green;
Though the sweet buds may wither, and fond hearts be broken,
Still I'll love thee my darling Daisy Deane.

21

CHICAGO:

PUBLISHED BY ROOT & CARY,

95 CLARK STREET.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1863, by Root & Cary, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Northern Dist. of Ill.