

Sent.

Philad. 26 Feb 1791

The American Philosophical Society held at Philadelphia for promoting useful knowledge having directed that an Eulogium to the Memory of their late worthy President Benjamin Franklin should be prepared - have agreed that on Tuesday next ^{the} same shall be pronounced in the German Lutheran Church at half past nine in the morning

The Society request the Directors of the Library Company to honor them with their presence on the important occasion.

We remain with Respect

Gent^l Your obedient Servants

Sam. Mifflin

Jon Williams

James Hutchinson

The Directors of the Library Company In Vaucluse

Committee