

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1862, by BARNARD & GIBSON, in the City of New York.

CUB RUN.

On the brow of the hill, to the left, is where Lieut. Col. Haggerty, of the 69th N. Y. M., was buried. The enemy followed from the ford as far as Cub Run, and owing to the road becoming blocked up at the crossing, caused much damage there, for the artillery could not pass, and several pieces and caissons had to be abandoned.
