53a

Stuart's Studio (where he painted Washington's portrait) [Courtesy, property of Historic Newport, now later property of William H. Wilson]
[Rear of 9:40 Memorial Ave.]

7¾ x 9

No 28

58b

House and grounds where the 4th of July was celebrated. [Courtesy property, residence of Dr. Steven Edwards, 4216 Frankford Ave., where Thos. Wilson read the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1876.]

7½ x 9⅝