

These Memories

I dedicate to my dear husband
G. Albert Lewis whose thought inspired the writing of this simple story

Indeed, it would be of little interest without his numerous and varied illustrations, many of which are his own design and handiwork. A number of the photographs, are copies of absolutely correct water-color sketches, made by him; the whole, being a mutual work of love, for our dear grandchildren.