what my father also paid, constituted their first investment in Real Estate in the City of Philadelphia.

This locality in Philadelphia was at that period a favorite place of residence, and many very fine houses were in the immediate neighborhood.

The march of business and the great fire, long ago swept out most of the old properties in that locality, once the place of residence of many of Philadelphia's old families.

This house John F. Lewis sold April 13th 1818. Deed is recorded in Deed Book M. R. No 19. Page 95. for $8,000.=
