March south of March 1 " " gab: 1664

mes now all the Letter with it fo near the ly Clothes, with Snow I their Mit, the Wowith no Small as alfo their am writing yet the yet the C Freez the In her Lovers er a Carter. rfes with a

Thou apart of herCourtthe Snow thefe Lon the Sled. Tes in the 1 Red, and ne all Con umphant Chair, feems like a Virgins Funeral Herfe, carried, and Buried by Torch-light, and her Feathers frem like a Silver Crown, that Ufually is laid thereon, also the Sled is Drawn cond Fall, By this Cultom and Practice you may know, we have here Recreations for every Seafon of the Year, and as the Old Saving is. that Pride in Winter is never Cold, fo it may here be faid, that Love in Winter is never Cold; indeed. I have heard fay, that Love is Hot, and tomy Apprehension it must be a very Hot Amorous Love that is not Cold this VVeather. But leaving the Hot Lovers in the Cold Snow. I reft, by the Fire fide, your 1-t